PLANS FOR THE CENTENNIAL ARE RAPIDLY TAKING SHAPE

General Meeting of Committees Develops Many New Ideas Which Will be Used

SCHOOLS TAKING INTEREST

Committee Chairmen to Meet With Program Committee Monday Night to Outline Program

TRUSTEES TO BE CALLED

Place Will be Provided For Relics to Large For Show Windows —Baby Parade

Active preparations for the Centennial, Home Coming and Fall Festival here the week of October 9 was started at a general meeting of the committees with the executive committee last night in the court house.

Outstanding features of the developments last night, which include plans for other events not previously considered, are as follows:

A meeting of the township trustees with the executive committee tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock to see if the township schools can not be dismissed one day to take part in the Centennial parade.

Decorating will be started next week with the erection of arches at the four main entrances to the business district of the city.

Lodges and all fraternal orders are urgently requested to place floats in the parade, the matter being left to the fraternal committee.

An amusement committee appointed to make plans for a mardi gras one night of the Centennial.

Finance committee will go to work next Monday morning at nine o'clock to raise the necessary funds.

A baby parade will be held one day of the Centennial and a special committee of women to have charge will be appointed at a meeting of the executive committee Saturday.

The program committee will meet Monday night in the sheriff's office at the court house with the chairmen of all the other committees and the program for the week will be mapped out.

Form invitations will be printed and will be distributed by the home coming committee among the people of Rushville and Rush county to send to their relatives and friends away from here urging them to come to the celebration.

A place will be provided for old reliances that are too large to display in show windows.

Each city school building will compete with the township schools in the Centennial parade with a float and a flag will be awarded to the school with the best float.

There were forty persons at the meeting last night and the enthusiasm displayed can mean but one thing—that the Centennial, Home Coming and Fall Festival will be an unqualified success because every interest is behind it and boosting.

Six more nominations for Centennial Queen were made today. Plans will be devised by the committee to sell votes beginning next Monday. The nominations will close next Saturday evening at six o'clock, which means that if there are those who would like to nominate their favorites, they have only one more day.

No one may be voted on who is not nominated, after the nominations are closed.

MERCHANTS HAVE EXPRESSED A WILLINGNESS TO GIVE A VOTE WITH EACH CASH PURCHASE OF TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. THIS PLAN WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE NEXT MONDAY. NEW NOMINATIONS TODAY WERE MARGARET HOLBROOK, ALLIE MOORE, PAULINE GOSNELL, MILDRED

Deserves Support

The hundredth anniversary of the birth of the state is a chance for a celebration that will come only once for the present generation, and one which deserves fitting observance. With few exceptions every county in the state has observed the Centennial. Rush county plans to the week of October 9.

It is an event of such importance that every citizen of the country should feel his or her responsibility. It will require a considerable sum of money to give the Centennial on the scale that has been planned by the committees.

The Centennial is not for the business men of Rushville alone, but is deserving of the financial support of everyone.

Contributions should be made to Earl H. Payne, chairman of the finance committee, or the other members of the committee, who are as follows: Wilbur Stiers, H. C. Flint, Theodore Heeb, Horatio Havens, Floyd Hogsett, W. S. O'Neal, P. A. Miller, V. C. Bodine, Willard Amos, E. R. Casady, L. L. Allen, Dr. Will S. Coleman and H. A. Kramer.

Kirk, Dorothy Mulno and Alma Green. Prizes amounting to fifty dollars will be awarded in the contest. Twenty-five dollars will go to the Queen, fifteen dollars to the one with the second highest number of votes and ten dollars to the third high.

Arrangements have been made for the celebration of Centennial Sunday, October 8. All ministers of the city have been interviewed and have promised to preach a Centennial sermon which will be in keeping with the spirit of the week which will be in keeping with the spirit of the week which begins on that day.

An effort will be made to induce the township trustees to allow the schools of the county to participate in the Centennial celebration. The trustees will be called by County Superintendent C. M. George for a meeting in his office Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The executive committee will be present at that time and will endeavor to interest the trustees in the celebration.

It was the general opinion of the meeting last night that the Centennial would not be complete without participation of the school children of the county. The executive committee authorized the announcement that a large flag would be awarded to the school with the best float and that the schools would all be put on an equal footing by having each Rushville school building a competing unit rather than all of the Rushville schools working together.

Superintendent J. H. Scholl of the Rushville public schools was present and said that he was anxious that the local schools co-operate in every way to make the Centennial a success. He said he had in mind the production of a float by each school building in the city, for the Centennial parade, and there is a possibility other features may be arranged for the schools.

For the purpose of advertising, work will be started next Monday on the arches which will adorn the four entrances to the business district. They will be large structures which will extend over the street and will bear words of welcome. Present plans call for the adorning of the arches with corn stalks and boughs of trees on which the leaves have begun to turn.

Several members of the fraternal committees were present last night and it was decided to ask each frat-

Mrs. Dora Gowdy Causes Her Husband to be Cited in Court

Allen Blackridge One of Battery B Men Who Failed to Show Up

Lewis J. Gowdy has been cited to appear in circuit court next Tuesday morning and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court. He has a divorce suit pending against Mrs. Dora Gowdy and some time ago the defendant filed a motion for an allowance. The court ordered Gowdy to pay his wife the sum of $2.50 a week for support until the final trial of the case. This morning she filed an affidavit asking that he be cited for contempt. She alleges that he has met only two of the weekly allowances, in all amounting to $5.

TROUBLE OVER PAVING STOPPED

Work in First Street and North Perkins Street Once More Without any Difficulty

NEW ENGINEERS ARE NAMED

The work of paving First and Perkins street is now progressing without any difficulties. Both the county commissioners and the city council have straightened out the difficulties with the contractors and no further trouble is now expected. The first section of brick laid in First street has been slushed and the commissioners now believe they will get a good job.

Lon Stewart has been appointed engineer for the Perkins street paving by the city council to take the place of Will Dill, who resigned yesterday. The commissioners have appointed George H. Havens as superintendent to take the place of Cicero Vance. The work is now in charge of the Illinois engineer, who is looking after the concrete work, while Mr. Havens inspects the brick.

The thermometers stood at fifty degrees early this morning, which does not seem very cold, but it was low enough to make folks think about blacking up the old stove and filling up the coal bin; also dusting off the furnace and getting it ready for another "hard winter."

If the weather man's prophecy is right, it will be early for a frost because they seldom come so soon in the fall. A severe frost would not do much damage, it was said by several persons today.

The weather man predicts a heavy frost tonight.

Whether his predictor was working right today will never be known until tomorrow morning, but there were many who arose this morning shivering from head to foot, with a feeling that it was plenty cold enough to frost.

The cornerstone is twenty-six and a half by twenty-six and a half inches and twelve inches thick, and weighs seven hundred and twenty pounds. The stone was furnished free of charge by the J. B. Schrichte Sons monument works of this city.

The cornerstone laying will be made the occasion for the gathering of Baptist ministers and prominent laymen in the church from all over this section of the state. There will be persons here from Indianapolis, Richmond, Waldron, St. Paul, Shelbyville, Connersville, Greensburg and many other cities in this part of Indiana.

HOMER C. U. PASTOR EXPIRES SUDDENLY

The Rev. Charles S. Fair, Age 51, is Found Dead on Floor by His Wife.

REMAINS SHIPPED TO IOWA

The Rev. Charles Sherman Fair, 51 years old, pastor of the Homer Christian Union church, died suddenly from heart disease Thursday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock at his home there. The Rev. Mr. Fair had been subject to heart attacks for some time. He appeared in his usual health yesterday. Mrs. Fair had gone down town and on returning home found him dead on the floor.

Ernest Mitchell, deputy coroner, investigated and found that death was due to heart disease. The Rev. Mr. Fair had returned to this country two weeks ago from Iowa to take charge of the Homer and Rays Crossing churches. He had been pastor of these churches several years ago before going to Iowa. He is survived by the widow.

The remains were taken to Arlington this morning and shipped to Milo, Ia., where burial will take place. Short services were held at the Homer church at nine o'clock.

W. L. Brown shipped his horses here today from Terre Haute, where it was in the fall races.

CORNERSTONE TO BRITISH SMASH GERMAN LINES BE LAID SUNDAY

Program is Announced Today for Ceremony at New First Baptist Church Sunday

MANY VISITORS ARE COMING

Stone is Furnished Free of Charge by J. B. Schrichte Sons Monument Works of City

The program was announced today for the cornerstone laying of the new First Baptist church in North Morgan street Sunday afternoon. Final arrangements were made last night by members of the church.

The ceremony will begin promptly at two o'clock with the singing of the hymn, "All Hail the Power," by the congregation. This will be followed by the invocation and the reading of the scripture lesson by the Rev. C. B. Jones of Greensburg.

Prayer will then be offered by the Rev. C. M. Yocom, pastor of the Main Street Christian church and the congregation will sing, "How Firm a Foundation."

The principal address of the afternoon will be delivered by the Rev. Carlos M. Dinsmore, superintendent of missions for the Indiana Baptist Convention.

This will be followed by the ceremony of placing of records in the box and the laying of the cornerstone. Prayer will be offered by the Rev. Horace N. Spear of Shelbyville and the singing of the Doxology follows. Benediction will be pronounced by the Rev. D. Ira Lambert of the First Presbyterian church.

The cornerstone is twenty-six and a half by twenty-six and a half inches and twelve inches thick, and weighs seven hundred and twenty pounds. The stone was furnished free of charge by the J. B. Schrichte Sons monument works of this city.

The cornerstone laying will be made the occasion for the gathering of Baptist ministers and prominent laymen in the church from all over this section of the state. There will be persons here from Indianapolis, Richmond, Waldron, St. Paul, Shelbyville, Connersville, Greensburg and many other cities in this part of Indiana.

DECLARE CARMEN'S STRIKE IS BROKEN

New York Traction Officials Statement Draws Threat of Sympathetic Strike

SUBWAY, ELEVATED RUNNING

New York, Sept. 15.—With subway and elevated lines running at better than normal capacity and taking care of the overflow from tied-up surface lines, officials of New York traction lines declared today the Carmen's strike was broken.

With a showing of some 10,000 former employees sticking to their strike, union labor leaders countered with a threat that unless a settlement came on their own terms, they would tie up the city Monday with a sympathetic strike of 400,000 union men. Between the two divergent forces, Mayor Mitchel and the public service commission were seeking—so far in vain—to obtain some middle ground for adjustment.

Numerous instances of "bombardments" of elevated trains by milk bottles, stones and other missiles were reported today. No one was injured. One shot was fired, the bullet lodging in the woodwork of the car.

STEAL $5,000; ARE CAUGHT

Three Men Robbed Corydon Blacksmith After Torturing Him

Coryden, Ind., Sept. 15.—Allan and Charles Holyoke and John Rogers, having been captured with the aid of bloodhounds, were placed in jail here today, charged with having robbed George Baker, a blacksmith, of $5,000 after having tortured him to gain the secret hiding place. Baker, a bachelor, was first tortured and then bound. His condition was discovered yesterday though the robbery occurred Wednesday night.

FORMER PASTOR DEAD.

Word was received here today of the death of the Rev. George A. Beattie, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Mr. Beattie died last Wednesday in Atlanta, Georgia. According to the word received here his death was rather sudden. The Rev. Mr. Beattie is remembered here by a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Ethel Beabout is ill at her home in North Maple street.

BLACKLIST NEED NOT WORRY U.S.

Investigator For Department of Agriculture Comes to This Conclusion.

CONDUCTS AN INVESTIGATION

Secret of How to Overcome These Difficulties is Investment of Capital Abroad.

BY JOHN H. HEARLEY.

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Rome, Sept. 15.—"British blacklists and other economic and industrial measures needn't worry the American business man," said Clarence W. Moomaw, European investigator of markets for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, here today. Moomaw's investigations in England, France, Switzerland and Italy are the basis for his statement. Later he will visit Russia, Scandinavian countries and Spain.

Moomaw is one of many agents in Europe making plans to protect America's future commercial relations with Europe. Special investigation is being made into the exportation of American grains, livestock and cotton.

The department probably will establish permanent agencies in the principal European cities after the war to see that American interests are protected and furthered.

Plans are being made to overcome England's discriminatory freight rates in favor of herself and her Allies and to the disadvantage of enemy and neutral nations. It is said that now, because the grain must be shipped in British bottoms, wheat bought at one price in the United States is sold to Britain and her allies by British carriers at five times less than it is sold to Switzerland and other neutral countries.

An attempt is being made to establish direct trade relations between the United States and Italy. As it now is, Italy must buy, for instance, all her cotton through Liverpool agents, thus permitting the British to control the Italian-American trade.

The secret of how America is to overcome these difficulties, at least in part, is the investment of American capital in European countries and the establishment of American banking facilities. The National City bank of New York already has taken steps in this direction in Milan and Genoa.

The Americans are the only people the Italians do not fear politically. Before the war Germany was a big factor in Italy's commercial life. The Italians say it never will be again.

Italy now really is a commercial orphan, inasmuch as many Italians fail to see any advantage in further indebtedness to the British.

Where the Blame Lies

The Newcastle Times, Democratic and the Courier, Republican, are engaged in a lively controversy as to who is responsible for the necessity of holding a general registration in Henry county this year, thus involving a heavy expense and involving a heavy expense and needless time lost to voters who want to take advantage of their rights of franchise.

Fortunately, the poll books were saved in Rush county, but not because of any law admonishing the officials to. It was just a happen-so, as it was in a few other counties in the state where a general registration will not be needed.

The Times accused the Republican county officials up at Newcastle of carelessness in destroying the poll books, which, a recent commission appointed by Governor Ralston, said would be necessary to make up the new registration sheets this fall so as to determine who had a right to vote without registration again. The registration law says any voter who registered in 1914 and did not vote has to register again this year.

Mr. Taggart is taking advantage of the franking privilege in the U. S. mails to send to practically every Democratic organization in the state two or three mail sacks full of literature, probably most of it his own speeches, to be used in the coming campaign, to show the wavering voters why the Democrats should be kept in power.

This morning three U. S. mail sacks, each packed so full of literature, pamphlets and other sheets that the sacks could not be tightly closed, were delivered to the "Democratic Jefferson club" with headquarters in County Chairman Stroh Hays' office. The sacks lay on the sidewalk in front of the Mouch building all morning and were viewed by hundreds of passersby.

It is to be presumed that in all of this literature Mr. Taggart has included a few of his speeches. It is likely probable that the one in which he "scorched" his Democratic colleagues for their extravagance may be included in the collection.

Of course, Mr. Taggart may consider that it is alright to frank his literature through the mails, beside what it cost to get all that stuff a public record and have the government print it for him, especially in this time of a paper famine, when the same amount of paper he uses might publish a newspaper full of real reading for a month. But when the taxpayers read his scorching speech on the extravagance of his colleagues and then stop to think how much he is economizing when it comes to advertising himself at public expense, they may draw the conclusion.

Champ Clark speaker of the national house of representatives, is perfectly honest about it. He says of the Maine election: "We got whipped and I guess that is all I will say about the Maine election. We got beaten good and plenty."

General Nelson A. Miles thinks a federation of nations would put an end to war. So do we. But the trouble is, the kings and emperors and other potentates won't listen to either Miles or us.

Don't cuss the country roads. Hunt up the road officials and cuss them instead.

Taggart Economy.
(Newcastle Courier.)

Tom Taggart, of French Lick fame and fortune, who was commissioned senator from Indiana by Gov. Samuel Ralston to fill the vacancy made by the death of Senator Benjamin F. Shively of South Bend, recently saw fit, while in a criticizing and vote-yearning mood, to literally flay his Democratic colleagues because of their waste and extravagances as evidenced in the pork bill recently passed by congress, in which millions of dollars were virtually "wasted," as Mr. Taggart conveniently sees it.

Taggart's speech, which was too hot for his colleagues in the senate to handle, sounded very nice to the Democratic administration and party workers in Indiana, who thought that such a speech from the Indiana junior senator on national extravagance would help throw a veil over the extravagance of the Indiana Democratic administration. Everybody was in favor of handling Mr. Taggart a medal or a special vote of thanks for valiant services.

But now Mr. Taggart, after having given his fellow law makers in the upper house of the United States congress a lecture and quiz on how to run a government without spending all the money that the government is likely to get into its treasury, starts out to set a nice example for his colleagues, whom only a short time ago he roundly and severely criticised for spending a lot of money on the rivers and harbors bill and other pork bills.

Mr. Taggart is taking advantage of the franking privilege in the U. S. mails to send to practically every Democratic organization in the state two or three mail sacks full of literature, probably most of it his own speeches, to be used in the coming campaign, to show the wavering voters why the Democrats should be kept in power.

HOOSIER BRIEFS.

Hartford City—Specifications and resolutions proved uninteresting to a few councilmen here and the city attorney had to awaken them before the meeting could proceed.

Gary—Voting machines will be installed in the voting places here in November for the first time in the history of the city. They will also be used at Crown Point this year and if they prove satisfactory they will be used exclusively in the county.

Greensburg—Chronic dead beats of Greensburg will soon be registered in the "Dead Beat" book, which is being published here, and credit will be refused them at local stores.

Gary—As a sequel to numerous assault and battery cases filed here, suit was filed to settle a dispute over seven and a half inches of real estate, which Mary Vicay claimed and which was also claimed by a foreigner owning a saloon adjoining the woman's property. Mrs. Vicay won the suit, but she was fined one cent and costs on assault and battery charge. The costs were remitted.

Terre Haute—How would you like to cook 400 meals a day? Mrs. Mary A. Fox, does that every day and sometimes she cooks as many as 600. She is cook at the local Y. W. C. A.

Newcastle—One of nature's phenomena is on exhibition in the office of the Newcastle Courier. They are fall plum blossoms. William Bunnell picked three pecks of plums from a tree early this season and the tree is in full bloom again.

Peru—Bachelors, old maids and others are regretting the announcement made by local restaurants that the price of meals and lunches will be increased 25 per cent as a result of the advance in food stuffs.

HOLLAND RUSK

A delicious crisp toast

When abroad Americans used to go out of their way to visit Holland and taste the famed Holland Rusk.

"Nothing Equal to It"

That's the verdict. Your grocer can sell you the same identical Holland Rusk, now made in Holland, Mich., by the same famed Dutch Bakers. Be sure the Windmill is on the package. There are other Rusks—base imitations—but none so good as the original Holland Rusk.

Crispy, tender, brown slices deliciously flavored with fresh eggs, sweet milk and rich creamy butter. A splendid lunch for children, with butter and sugar; better for them than bread or pastry.

Look for the Windmill on the package. Get the genuine and you will like them.

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis.

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco to all." "Made my teeth with glisten and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "An indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulate you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Original on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know, why not go to your CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay.

MINOR LEAGUES NEED STIMULANT

Club Owners in All of Small Circuit, as a Rule Lost Money This Year.

PLAY FOR AN EMPTY HONOR
National Association May be Asked to Help Suggest Plan For Creating Interest.

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Sept. 15.—Baseball club owners in the minor leagues, with very few exceptions, will be glad to see the end of this season, just as they were tickled when they wound up business a year ago. Baseball in the minors, apparently, has seen its best days. A year ago when business was dull the whole thing was laid to the Federal League, and everyone was happy; this year business again is dead but there is no one with a good explanation for it.

However there is one phase of the baseball business which probably applies nearer to the case of the minor leagues than any other. Minor leagues have nothing to play for except the empty honor, to a professional athlete—of winning a trophy the pennant of his particular league denoting the championship. In the major leagues this is different. Each year there is a hot race to the end of the season and the two best clubs then get together in a series for the world's championship. The players get their share of the gate receipts and some city gets the honor of being the home of the world's baseball champions.

There is the remedy for the minor leagues. If some way might be devised for the minor leagues to play a world's championship series it would give a stimulus to the game in the lower classifications. There would be a driving fight among the players and the big games would put many a dollar into the coffers of various clubs to get into this title the minor magnates. Even if they only broke even on the heavy expense of a trip to the city where the games were staged they would have the velvet from a season of hot competition and interest aroused among the fans.

For some time there have been desultory efforts by minor league magnates to decide the minor league championship. For several seasons, when Denver was pennant winner in the Western league and Milwaukee and Minneapolis carried away bounties in the American association the respective club owners got together and arranged a title series. There was quite a bit of interest, but the series was a failure because the National Commission or the National association had nothing to do with it and a pennant was not awarded.

Several suggestions regarding a series of this sort have been brought out. A prominent club owner in the western league some time ago promised if his club was fortunate enough to win the pennant in that league, to take it to the Pacific coast for a series with the Pacific Coast League champions. Unfortunately, his club did not win and this series was not played. At that time he suggested a plan which would bring together the Class A and AA pennant winners in an elimination series which finally would settle the world's minor league championship. He even suggested that the series be played annually in Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City or some other centrally located city where accommodations could be obtained for a huge number of fans and where interest would be greater. He also said he believed each pennant winning city could stage part of the elimination games and the final contests played in the cities whose clubs got into the finals.

However, this would be little help to the clubs in lower classifications, and it would be manifestly unfair to them to leave them out. It seems to be a question to be taken up at the next meeting of the National association and the club owner spoken of has promised to bring it up at the first opportunity.

Frank Isbell, a former member of the world's champion White Sox when they were piloted by Fielder Jones, is being sounded by various western league club owners who want him to take the presidency of the western league. Frank C. Zehnring is the present head. Isbell at present owns the Des Moines club.

Scandinavians of Northwest Plan Bronze Tablet To Memory Of Hjelm Hansen

PRESS ASSOCIATION MEETS

(By United Press.)

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 15.—The world discovered today why Minnesota and Dakotas are settled mostly by Scandinavians. It seems Paul Hjelm Hansen came over in 1869 and pressaged the section so well through his home paper that his fellow countrymen started to flock to it and have kept right on doing so ever since. O. P. B. Jacobsen, Minnesota railroad and warehouse commissioner and president of the Ugebladet Publishing company of Fergus Falls, Minn., announced at the opening of the twenty first annual session of the Norwegian-Danish Press association here today that a bronze tablet is to be placed to the memory of Hansen in the Minnesota Historical society room in St. Paul.

President Carl G. O. Hansen of the association, who also is associate editor of the Northwest, opened the session. Other well known editors present are: P. O. Thorson, vice president, and publisher of Norman den, a Scandinavian paper in North Dakota; N. N. Ronning, editor and manager of the Ungdommens Ven, Minneapolis; A. N. Sundheim, treasurer, of Augsburg Publishing House, Minneapolis; O. O. Stomme, Madison, Wis.; L. Stavenheim, Minneapolis and A. H. Lindelie of Grand Forks.

HELP IS RUINED GARY OFFICER

Leigh Mac Crea, Policeman, Tells How Relief Came in New Medicine, Tanlac

Gary, Ind., Sept. 15, 1916.—An officer of the law, Leigh MacCrea, a member of the police department of this city, has added his words of praise for Tanlac, the Master Medicine. Policeman MacCrea recently said:

"For a long time I have suffered with stomach trouble. It became so severe at times that I was almost forced to stop my work. I had severe pains in my stomach after eating. Accumulations of gas formed in my stomach.

"I feel better in every way since taking Tanlac. The accumulations of gas on my stomach have been banished and I now have a fine appetite."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism and the like, and is fine for building up to health and strength all weak, rundown people. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's drug store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy & Son's, and in Milroy at Barton & Sheppard's." (Adv.)

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

WILSON REGIME HIGHLY PRAISED

Some Attention is Also Paid to Recent Tour of Hughes at Marshall Notification

MANY NOTABLES PRESENT

Marks Formal Opening of Democratic Campaign in Indiana—National Chairman There

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—The Wilson administration was glorified and the efforts of Charles E. Hughes to discredit it were scored severely last night in speeches at the notification of Vice President Marshall, which was held in Tomlinson Hall before a large audience. The notification was the formal opening of the Democratic national campaign in Indiana, and in addition to the Vice President, Vance McCormick, national chairman; Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, Western campaign manager, and other leading lights of the Democratic party were in attendance.

The meeting was preceded by a monster parade of Democratic organizations from a score of cities, towns and villages of Indiana, who came to the rally. The national party leaders occupied seats on the stage, and in addition to those mentioned above, the visitors included Representative Edward Taylor of Colorado, Scott Ferris, representative from Oklahoma; Bruce Kremer, director of the speakers' bureau at Chicago; National Committeeman Boeschenstein of Illinois, and William J. Cochran, publicity director at the Chicago office.

About twenty-five members of the notification committee attended, including Mrs. Terese Graham of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and Mrs. Harrison Foster of Tacoma, Wash., the only two women members of the committee.

Martin H. Glynn of New York, chairman of the notification committee, delivered the notification address and severely scored Charles E. Hughes for his attempt to discredit the Wilson administration. He referred particularly to the issue drawn by Hughes on the Adamson eight-hour law.

In an interview given out on his arrival here at noon, Chairman McCormick declared that the Democrats are going to insist that Mr. Hughes answer the questions propounded to him by the American writers. Everywhere Hughes goes, he said, the questions will be printed in paid advertisements in the newspapers. This program will be followed out when Hughes comes to Indiana next week, he said.

In his notification speech Mr. Glynn asked some pointed questions of the Republican nominee concerning the Adamson act. In this connection he said:

"In his hopping for an issue, the Republican candidate for President seems to have settled for awhile on this eight-hour railway law, but he will not stay on it very long after the voters commence to ask him to explain his contradictory conduct of himself and his party on this question. If this bill is a bad bill, why did seventy-five Republican congressmen vote for it, and only forty-five against it? If this bill is a bad bill, why didn't the Republican members of the Senate kill it, as they could have killed it by exercising their parliamentary rights under the no-cloture rule of the Senate?"

"They could have talked it to death under that rule, as they have talked many another good law to death. If the Republican candidate for President thinks this is such a bad law, why didn't he say so before two-thirds of his party declared in favor of it in the House of Representatives?"

Glynn declared that the failure of the Republicans to kill the bill should stop their criticism of it.

GOOD EFFECT IS FELT IN STATE

Maine Election Results Cheer Republican Workers and Arouse New Activity.

OPPOSITE ON DEMOCRATS

Evidence of This is Change to Offers of 10 to 8 Wilson Will Not Carry State.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—Maine election results have had an electrical effect on Indiana Republicans. As reports came in and the Republican plurality was swelled to almost record breaking proportions the advices from over Indiana cheered the hearts of the Republican workers. If anything was needed to make Indiana Republican by an old time plurality, it is the opinion of seasoned political observers that Maine has furnished it. Republicans are going about their business with increased determination and unbound enthusiasm.

On the other hand, the effect of the Maine election on the Democratic politicians has been much the same as the effect throwing a wet blanket on a blaze would have. Their faces lengthened as the returns from the Pine Tree state rolled in and when the final returns, showing a clean sweep of all the Maine congressional districts by the Republicans, were received they made no attempt whatever to conceal their disappointment. Discouraged beyond expression, they will go about their Indiana work with a full realization that the political drift is decidedly in the direction of Republicanism. The additional handicap of a candidate for governor, humiliated to the point of admitting publicly that he cannot answer the attacks being made by his Republican opponent, has in no way tended to increase confidence or arouse party enthusiasm.

That the Maine election has had the effect of knocking the bottom out of the Indiana Democratic campaign is accepted generally by political workers. The best evidence of this is found in the fact that on the day following the Maine election offers of 10 to 8 that Wilson will not carry Indiana appeared on the Indianapolis betting boards.

Indications are multiplying that the Maine result, instead of making Indiana Republicans over-confident, is causing them to redouble their efforts against the Indiana Democratic machine. The determination seems to be general among the opposition to the Taggart organization to roll up a plurality at the polls in November that will be demoralizing for years to come.

The Democratic press of Indiana, in an heroic effort to stem the tide, is using considerable space in an effort to convince the voting public that the result in Maine was a "wonderful Democratic victory." The Republicans of Indiana would welcome a few more such "Democratic victories."

In the meantime, it might be well to reflect that there has not been a

OH! MY BACK

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Rushville

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills revive sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Here's Rushville proof:

Taylor M. Loyd, 940 W. Third St., Rushville, says: My back ached steadily and at times was so weak that I could hardly be about. The kidney secretions were first too frequent in passage, then again too seldom. I used about four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Fox Bros. Drug Store, and they did just as recommended, relieving me in a short time."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Loyd had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. —(Adv.)

Gas Engines of Quality

At the present time the market is flooded with a lot of undersized and cheaply constructed engines, with a much over-rated horse power. Do not be misled by a low price and extravagant claims.

When you buy a FOOS you are getting full value for every dollar you put into it. It develops full power on a lower speed, thereby greatly adding to the life of your engine. Patent speed changer is operated instantly. There are dozens of satisfied users in the county. Investigate the FOOS first. It will pay you well. Furnished with magneto if desired.

single election of any description in any state north of the Mason and Dixon line since 1912 that has not shown an unmistakable drift towards the Republican party. It is as impossible to stem a political tide, once it sets in, as it is to stem the tide of the sea. That the political tide long since set in towards the Republican party, there is none bold enough in the whole country, with election returns as their guide, to deny.

PLANS FOR THE CENTENNIAL ARE RAPIDLY TAKING SHAPE

General Meeting of Committees Develops Many New Ideas Which Will be Used

SCHOOLS TAKING INTEREST

Committee Chairmen to Meet With Program Committee Monday Night to Outline Program

TRUSTEES TO BE CALLED

Place Will be Provided For Relics to Large For Show Windows —Baby Parade

Active preparations for the Centennial, Home Coming and Fall Festival here the week of October 9 was started at a general meeting of the committees with the executive committee last night in the court house.

Outstanding features of the developments last night, which include plans for other events not previously considered, are as follows:

A meeting of the township trustees with the executive committee tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock to see if the township schools can not be dismissed one day to take part in the Centennial parade.

Decorating will be started next week with the erection of arches at the four main entrances to the business district of the city.

Lodges and all fraternal orders are urgently requested to place floats in the parade, the matter being left to the fraternal committee.

An amusement committee appointed to make plans for a mardi gras one night of the Centennial.

Finance committee will go to work next Monday morning at nine o'clock to raise the necessary funds.

A baby parade will be held one day of the Centennial and a special committee of women to have charge will be appointed at a meeting of the executive committee Saturday.

The program committee will meet Monday night in the sheriff's office at the court house with the chairmen of all the other committees and the program for the week will be mapped out.

Form invitations will be printed and will be distributed by the home coming committee among the people of Rushville and Rush county to send to their relatives and friends away from here urging them to come to the celebration.

A place will be provided for old reliances that are too large to display in show windows.

Each city school building will compete with the township schools in the Centennial parade with a float and a flag will be awarded to the school with the best float.

There were forty persons at the meeting last night and the enthusiasm displayed can mean but one thing—that the Centennial, Home Coming and Fall Festival will be an unqualified success because every interest is behind it and boosting.

Six more nominations for Centennial Queen were made today. Plans will be devised by the committee to sell votes beginning next Monday. The nominations will close next Saturday evening at six o'clock, which means that if there are those who would like to nominate their favorites, they have only one more day.

No one may be voted on who is not nominated, after the nominations are closed.

FILES CONTEMPT CHARGES

Mrs. Dora Gowdy Causes Her Husband to be Cited in Court

Lewis J. Gowdy has been cited to appear in circuit court next Tuesday morning and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court. He has a divorce suit pending against Mrs. Dora Gowdy and some time ago the defendant filed a motion for an allowance. The court ordered Gowdy to pay his wife the sum of $2.50 a week for support until the final trial of the case. This morning she filed an affidavit asking that he be cited for contempt. She alleges that he has met only two of the weekly allowances, in all amounting to $5.

TROUBLE OVER PAVING STOPPED

Work in First Street and North Perkins Street Once More Without any Difficulty

NEW ENGINEERS ARE NAMED

The work of paving First and Perkins street is now progressing without any difficulties. Both the county commissioners and the city council have straightened out the difficulties with the contractors and no further trouble is now expected. The first section of brick laid in First street has been slushed and the commissioners now believe they will get a good job.

Lon Stewart has been appointed engineer for the Perkins street paving by the city council to take the place of Will Dill, who resigned yesterday. The commissioners have appointed George H. Havens as superintendent to take the place of Cicero Vance. The work is now in charge of the Illinois engineer, who is looking after the concrete work, while Mr. Havens inspects the brick.

TO ELECT MEMBERS MEXICAN CONGRESS

Carranza Issues Decree Calling For Constitutional Body to Meet November 20

ELECTION SET FOR OCT. 15

(By United Press) Mexico City, Sept. 15.—Mexico is about to resume her place among the republics of the western hemisphere after four years of revolutionary disturbances.

A decree issued by General Carranza last night on the eve of the celebration of the anniversary of Mexican independence prepares the way for the present de facto government to be replaced by a substantial constitutional government.

It is the most important proclamation issued by Carranza since he took up arms against Huerta. The decree makes provision for the election of members of a national congress. Another decree will be issued tomorrow calling for the election of a constitutional congress on October 15. The first session of the new congress will be held November 20, probably in a suburb of Mexico City.

The decree issued last night provides that each state and territory shall elect a deputy to congress and a sub-deputy for every 70,000 inhabitants and an additional deputy if the fraction above 70,000 exceeds two-sevenths of that number.

Allen Blackridge One of Battery B Men Who Failed to Show Up

A dispatch today to the Indianapolis Star from New Orleans, La., says that three privates of Battery B, Indiana National Guard, which is on its way home from the border to be mustered out, were lost at Houston, Texas, and that one of them was Allen Blackridge, who lives here. He is one of five young men from here who have been at Camp Llano Grande with Battery B. The dispatch says they evidently forgot the time the train was scheduled to leave because they did not put in an appearance.

FROST IS COMING TONIGHT, SAYS W. M.

Declares Heavy Fall May be Expected in Low Places, Which is Likely to Cause Damage

50° ABOVE THIS MORNING

The weather man predicts a heavy frost tonight.

Whether his predictor was working right today will never be known until tomorrow morning, but there were many who arose this morning shivering from head to foot, with a feeling that it was plenty cold enough to frost.

If the weather man's prophecy is right, it will be early for a frost because they seldom come so soon in the fall. A severe frost would do much damage, it was said by several persons today.

The thermometer stood at fifty degrees early this morning, which does not seem very cold, but it was low enough to make folks think about blacking up the old stove and filling up the coal bin; also, dusting off the furnace and getting it ready for another "hard winter."

Many professed to see a sign of approaching winter today in the movements of the habitues of the city fire station. They have been accustomed to sitting out in front in the shade, but today they all moved around into the alley in the sun.

HOMER C. U. PASTOR EXPIRES SUDDENLY

The Rev. Charles S. Fair, Age 51, Is Found Dead on Floor by His Wife.

REMAINS SHIPPED TO IOWA

The Rev. Charles Sherman Fair, 51 years old, pastor of the Homer Christian Union church, died suddenly from heart disease Thursday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock at his home there. The Rev. Mr. Fair had been subject to heart attacks for some time. He appeared in his usual health yesterday. Mrs. Fair had gone down town and on returning home found him dead on the floor.

Ernest Mitchell, deputy coroner, investigated and found that death was due to heart disease. The Rev. Mr. Fair had returned to this country two weeks ago from Iowa to take charge of the Homer and Rays Crossing churches. He had been pastor of these churches several years ago before going to Iowa. He is survived by the widow.

The remains were taken to Arlington this morning and shipped to Milo, Ill., where burial will take place. Short services were held at the Homer church at nine o'clock.

CORNERSTONE TO BRITISH SMASH GERMAN LINES BE LAID SUNDAY

Program is Announced Today for Ceremony at New First Baptist Church Sunday.

MANY VISITORS ARE COMING

TAKE 1,000 YARDS TRENCHES Four German Aeroplanes Shot Down in Flames—Allied Aircraft Co-Operate

(By United Press) London, Sept. 15.—British troops resumed their great offensive this morning with a powerful blow against the German lines north of the Somme.

General Haig announced this afternoon that the British advanced 2,000 yards on the wide front from Boulaux wood, northwest of Combles, to a point north of the Albert-Bapaume road. The attack is continuing and many prisoners already have been taken.

Southeast of Thiepval, the British last night captured German trenches on a front of a thousand yards.

The British used a new type of heavy armored car for the first time in this morning's great smash and with remarkable success, General Haig reported. Four German aeroplanes were shot down in flames and four others damaged. On no single day on any front since the beginning of the war have so many aeroplanes been put out of commission.

British air forces co-operated splendidly with the infantry in the attacks, flying low and turning machine guns on German infantry.

(By United Press) The cornerstone is twenty-six and a half by twenty-six and a half inches and twelve inches thick, and weighs seven hundred and twenty pounds. The stone was furnished free of charge by the J. B. Schrichte Sons monument works of this city.

The cornerstone laying will be made the occasion for the gathering of Baptist ministers and prominent laymen in the church from all over this section of the state. There will be persons here from Indianapolis, Richmond, Waldron, St. Paul, Shellyville, Connersville, Greensburg and many other cities in this part of Indiana.

DEclare Carmen's STRIKE IS BROKEN

New York Traction Officials Statement Draws Threat of Sympathetic Strike

SUBWAY, ELEVATED RUNNING

New York, Sept. 15.—With subway and elevated lines running at better than normal capacity and taking care of the overflow from tied-up surface lines, officials of New York traction lines declared today the carmen's strike was broken.

With a showing of some 10,000 former employees sticking to their strike, union labor leaders countered with a threat that unless a settlement came on their own terms, they would tie up the city Monday with a sympathetic strike of 400,000 men.

Between the two divergent forces, Mayor Mitchel and the public service commission were seeking—so far in vain—to obtain some middle ground for adjustment. Numerous instances of "bombarments" of elevated trains by milk bottles, stones and other missiles were reported today. No one was injured. One shot was fired, the bullet lodging in the woodwork of the car.

Word was received here today of the death of the Rev. George A. Beattie, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Mr. Beattie died last Wednesday in Atlanta, Georgia. According to the word received here his death was rather sudden. The Rev. Mr. Beattie is remembered here by a large circle of friends.

Mrs. Ethel Babbott is ill at her home in North Maple street.

SURFACE GIVES UP FIGHT

After Going Through Four Fights
He Finally Resigns.

(By United Press.)

Harrisburg, Sept. 15.—Having weathered four investigations of the affairs of his office, since he took it in 1903 and stuck tight to it, Dr. H. A. Surface, Pennsylvania's State Economic Zoologist, gave up the fight today and stepped out. Dr. Surface was succeeded by J. G. Sanders, formerly head of the same bureau for the state of Wisconsin. Dr. Surface was asked to resign by the Agricultural Commission. Governor Brumbaugh declined to interfere and the board made no explanatory statement. One probe of this office was public, but the other three were private. He weathered all of them but decided he would not put up a fifth fight to retain his office.

CONDUCTS AN INVESTIGATION

Secret of How to Overcome These Difficulties is Investment of Capital Abroad.

BY JOHN H. HEARLEY.
(U. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Rome, Sept. 15.—"British black-lists and other economic and industrial measures needn't worry the American business man," said Clarence W. Moomaw, European investigator of markets for the U. S. Department of Agriculture, here today.

Moomaw's investigations in England, France, Switzerland and Italy are the basis for his statement. Later he will visit Russia, Scandinavia, countries and Spain.

Moomaw is one of many agents in Europe making plans to protect America's future commercial relations with Europe. Special investigation is being made into the exportation of American grains, livestock and cotton.

The department probably will establish permanent agencies in the principal European cities after the war to see that American interests are protected and furthered.

Plans are being made to overcome England's discriminatory freight rates in favor of herself and her Allies and to the disadvantage of enemy and neutral nations. It is said that now, because the grain must be shipped in British bottoms, wheat bought at one price in the United States is sold to Britain and her allies by British carriers at five times less than it is sold to Switzerland and other neutral countries.

An attempt is being made to establish direct trade relations between the United States and Italy.
As it now is, Italy must buy, for instance, all her cotton through Liverpool agents, thus permitting the British to control the Italian-American trade.

The secret of how America is to overcome these difficulties, at least in part, is the investment of American capital in European countries and the establishment of American banking facilities. The National City bank of New York already has taken steps in this direction in Milan and Genoa.

The Americans are the only people the Italians do not fear politically. Before the war Germany was a big factor in Italy's commercial life. The Italians say it never will be so again.

Italy now really is a commercial orphan, inasmuch as many Italians fail to see any advantage in further indebtedness to the British.

The Newcastle Times, Democratic and the Courier, Republican, are engaged in a lively controversy as to who is responsible for the necessity of holding a general registration in Henry county this year, thus involving a heavy expense and needless time lost to voters who want to take advantage of their rights of franchise.

Fortunately, the poll books were saved in Rush county, but not because of any law admonishing the officials to. It was just a happen-so, as it was in a few other counties in the state where a general registration will not be needed.

The Times accused the Republican county officials up at Newcastle of carelessness in destroying the poll books, which, a recent commission appointed by Governor Ralston, said would be necessary to make up the new registration sheets this fall so as to determine who had a right to vote without registration again. The registration law says any voter who registered in 1914 and did not vote has to register again this year.

The Times sets forth in its article that the first paragraph of the amended registration law which went into effect last April says that the poll books of the election clerks shall be permanent records for making up the registration sheets. The Courier calls the Times for such perverted truths and sets forth the paragraph of the law, revealing that the law says nothing about poll books, but declares that registration books of each precinct shall be deemed a permanent registration record.

Then the Courier proceeds to show, which is undoubtedly right, that the taxpayers of Indiana have none to thank but the last legislature, which was Democratic and in which the editor of the Times sat, for the extra expense attached to a general registration. In no election statute is an official required to keep poll books longer than six months.

Champ Clark speaker of the national house of representatives, is perfectly honest about it. He says of the Maine election: "We got whipped and I guess that is all I will say about the Maine election. We got beaten good and plenty."

General Nelson A. Miles thinks a federation of nations would put an end to war. So do we. But the trouble is, the kings and emperors and other potentates won't listen to either Miles or us.

Current Comments

thought that such a speech from the Indiana junior senator on national extravagance would help throw a veil over the extravagance of the Indiana Democratic administration. Everybody was in favor of handing Mr. Taggart a medal or a special vote of thanks for valiant services.

But now Mr. Taggart, after having given his fellow law makers in the upper house of the United States congress a lecture and quiz on how to run a government without spending all the money that the government is likely to get into its treasury, starts out to set a nice example for his colleagues, whom only a short time ago he roundly and severely criticised for spending a lot of money on the rivers and harbors bill and other pork bills.

Mr. Taggart is taking advantage of the franking privilege in the U. S. mails to send to practically every Democratic organization in the state two or three mail sacks full of literature, probably most of it his own speeches, to be used in the coming campaign, to show the waving voters why the Democrats should be kept in power.

This morning three U. S. mail sacks, each packed so full of literature, pamphlets and other sheets that the sacks could not be tightly closed, were delivered to the "Democratic Jefferson club" with headquarters in County Chairman Strod Hays' office. The sacks lay on the sidewalk in front of the Mouch building all morning and were viewed by hundreds of passersby.

It is to be presumed that in all of this literature Mr. Taggart has enclosed a few of his speeches. It is likely probable that the one in which he "scored" his Democratic colleagues for their extravagance may be included in the collection.

Of course, Mr. Taggart may consider that it is alright to frank his literature through the mails, besides what it cost to get all that stuff a public record and have the government print it for him, especially in this time of a paper famine, when the same amount of paper he uses might publish a newspaper full of real reading for a month. But when the taxpayers read his scorching speech on the extravagance of his colleagues and then stop to think how much he is economizing when it comes to advertising himself at public expense, they may draw the conclusion.

That's the verdict. Your grocer can sell you the same identical Holland Rusk, now made in Holland, Mich., by the same famed Dutch Bakers. Be sure the Windmill is on the package. There are other Rusks—base imitations—but none so good as the original Holland Rusk.

Crispy, tender, brown slices deliciously flavored with fresh eggs, sweet milk and rich creamy butter. A splendid lunch for children, with butter and sugar better for them than bread or pastry.

Look for the Windmill on the package. Get the genuine and you will like them.

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhœa, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis.

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I recommend Senreco as the best." "Make that tooth glisten and free from infection, increase your dental practice, and profit." "I am glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Can't locate you in formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know, why not go to your dealer today and get a tube of SENRECO to see. Keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhœa and decay.

* A copy of the folder, "The Most General Disease in the World" together with a liberal trial size tube of SENRECO will be mailed you for 10¢ postage. The Santal Remedies Co., Inc., Dept. E, Masonic Temple, Cincinnati, Ohio.

MINOR LEAGUES NEED STIMULANT

Club Owners in All of Small Circuit, as a Rule Lost Money This Year.

PLAY FOR AN EMPTY HONOR

National Association May be Asked to Help Suggest Plan For Creating Interest.

BY HAMILTON.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Sept. 15.—Baseball club owners in the minor leagues, with very few exceptions, will be glad to see the end of this season just as they were tickled when they wound up business a year ago. Baseball in the minors, apparently, has seen its best days. A year ago when business was dull the whole thing was laid to the Federal League, and everyone was happy; this year business again is dead but there is no one with a good explanation for it.

However, there is one phase of the baseball business which probably applies nearer to the ease of the minor leagues than any other. Minor leagues have nothing to play for except the empty honor, to a professional athlete—of winning a trophy the pennant of his particular league denoting the championship. In the major leagues this is different. Each year there is a hot race to the end of the season and the two best clubs then get together in a series for the world's championship. The players get their share of the gate receipts and some city gets the honor of being the home of the world's baseball champions.

There is the remedy for the minor leagues. If some way might be devised for the minor leagues to play a world's championship series it would give a stimulus to the game in the lower classifications. There would be a driving fight among the players and the big games would put many a dollar into the coffers of various clubs to get into this title the minor magnates. Even if they only broke even on the heavy expense of a trip to the city where the games were staged they would have the velvet from a season of hot competition and interest aroused among the fans.

For some time there have been desultory efforts by minor league magnates to decide the minor league championship. For several seasons, when Denver was pennant winner in the Western league and Milwaukee and Minneapolis carried away bunting in the American association the respective club owners got together and arranged a title series. There was quite a bit of interest; but the series was a failure because the National Commission or the National association had nothing to do with it and a pennant was not awarded.

Several suggestions regarding a series of this sort have been brought out. A prominent club owner in the western league some time ago promised if his club was fortunate enough to win the pennant in that league, to take it to the Pacific coast for a series with the Pacific Coast League champions. Unfortunately, his club did not win and this series was not played. At that time he suggested a plan which would bring together the Class A and AA pennant winners in an elimination series which finally would settle the world's minor league championship. He even suggested that the series be played annually in Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City or some other centrally located city where accommodations could be obtained for a huge number of fans and where interest would be greater. He also said he believed each pennant winning city could stage part of the elimination games and the final contests played in the cities whose clubs got into the finals.

However, this would be little help to the clubs in lower classifications, and it would be manifestly unfair to them to leave them out. It seems to be a question to be taken up at the next meeting of the National association and the club owner spoken of has promised to bring it up at the first opportunity.

Frank Isbell, a former member of the world's champion White Sox when they were piloted by Fielder Jones, is being sounded by various western league club owners who want him to take the presidency of the western league. Frank C. Zehring is the present head. Isbell at present owns the Des Moines club.

(By United Press)

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 15.—The world discovered today why Minnesota and Dakota are settled mostly by Scandinavians. It seems Paul Hjelm Hansen came over in 1869 and pressaged the section so well through his home paper that his fellow countrymen started to flock to it and have kept right on doing so ever since. O. P. B. Jacobsen, Minnesota railroad and warehouse commissioner and president of the Ugebladet Publishing company of Fergus Falls, Minn., announced at the opening of the twenty first annual session of the Norwegian-Danish Press association here today that a bronze tablet is to be placed to the memory of Hansen in the Minnesota Historical society room in St. Paul. President Carl G. O. Hansen of the association, who also is associate editor of the Northwest, opened the session. Other well known editors present are: P. O. Thorson, vice president, and publisher of Norman- den, a Scandinavian paper in North Dakota; N. N. Ronning, editor and manager of the Ungdommens Ven,

How Relief Came in New Medicine, Tanlac

Gary, Ind., Sept. 15, 1916.—An officer of the law, Leigh MacCrea, a member of the police department of this city, has added his words of praise for Tanlac, the Master Medicine. Policeman MacCrea recently said:

"For a long time I have suffered with stomach trouble. It became so severe at times that I was almost forced to stop my work. I had severe pains in my stomach after eating. Accumulations of gas formed on my stomach.

"I feel better in every way since taking Tanlac. The accumulations of gas on my stomach have been banished and I now have a fine appetite."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism and the like, and is fine for building up to health and strength all weak, rundown people. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's drug store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy & Son's, and in Millroy at Barton & Shepard's."—(Adv.)

RUTH WIDAU ASKS DIVORCE

Seeks Decree From John Widau, Alleging Cruel Treatment

Mrs. Ruth Widau filed suit for divorce yesterday from John Widau, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The complaint states that they were married November 25, 1914 and separated Sept. 13, 1916 at which time she claims that on account of his treatment she was compelled to leave him. Mrs. Widau alleges that he frequently cursed her and on many occasions cursed her in the presence of some of her friends. It is understood that the question of alimony had been determined before the filing of the suit was not mentioned in the complaint.

Says NACOR Fine For Lung Trouble

T. P. Morton, R. R. No. 1, Rockwood, Tenn., writes as follows regarding NACOR, the remedy for LUNG TROUBLE and ASTHMA:

When I first commenced taking Nacor, I was having from two to three spells of asthma every night. After taking four doses, I was completely relieved. It is the best expectorant I have ever used. I am glad I can recommend it for consumption, asthma and catarrh. It is good for any bronchial or lung troubles. When I first commenced taking Nacor, I weighed 155 pounds, now I weigh 166 pounds, a gain of 11 pounds in six weeks. I can do hard work and walk five miles. Before taking Nacor, I could not walk 100 yards without stopping to rest.

(Signed) T. P. Morton.

All sufferers from lung trouble and asthma should write today for free copy of "Facts About Nacor," our new folder which furnishes valuable information about these troubles.

SUSTAINS BROKEN HIP

Mrs. Sarah Carr, a well known resident of Homer, sustained a broken hip bone last night in a fall at her home. Mrs. Carr is eighty years old and the injury may result seriously. She is the mother of Roy Carr and Charles Carr, both well known farmers of Walker township.

(By United Press) Hartford City, Sept. 15.—When the city council convenes this evening the proposition of motorizing the fire department will be considered. The truck which the councilman have in view, would cost about $1500 where as the horse-drawn truck now in use cost $2,100 several years ago.

CAMPAIGN IS OPENED.

(By United Press) Gary, Ind., Sept. 15.—Lake county's republican campaign was launched here today at a rally at the Gary theater. Big plans are being made for the advent of Charles E. Hughes into the state.

C. OF C. HEAD SPEAKS.

(By United Press) Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—R. G. Rheet, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, was the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Manufacturer's division of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, which met here today. Mr. Rheet's speech touched on the railroad labor question, because he wished to bring before the members the value of instructing the labor organizations in regard to national legislation.

The Carthage Board and Paper company is preparing to build an addition to its plant. The plans call for an additional machine room. The company is now operating full time and is in need of more men.

One of the largest sales this season was held at the Mabley Stock farm at Hartsville today. Those attending from here were Joe Amos, Foy Bever, Dr. Mull and Jerry Sullivan.

PLANS FOR CENTENNIAL RAPIDLY TAKING SHAPE

ernal organization put a float in the Centennial parade.

The finance committee will go to work next Monday morning at nine o'clock. The nature of the celebration is such that it devolves upon everyone to feel some responsibility and help with a contribution. The finance committee makes an appeal to every one in Rushville, and to those outside of Rushville who care to help, to make a small donation.

W. M. Bliss and Fon Riggs were appointed members of an amusement committee which will consider plans for a mardi gras one night of the Centennial. A night of carnival and merry making, when it would be the rule for every one to garb themselves in fantastic costumes, was considered last night as one of the very best means of promoting the good spirit of the celebration. A parade of the masked people would be made, if this plan is carried out.

A baby parade is a feature that has been used at other centennial celebrations in Indiana this year and it was suggested last night as something which would find favor here. The executive committee will appoint a committee of prominent women Saturday to take charge of plans for the parade.

A suitable method of formally opening the celebration was left to a committee composed of E. R. Cassidy, William G. Mulno and Walter Pearce, appointed last night. It has been the rule at other county Centennials that the church bells have been rung, factory whistles blown, and automobile horns tooted at a given hour.

The program committee can not work until it has some idea from the various committees what their plans are. The committee has been called to meet the chairmen of all committees in the sheriff's office in the court house next Monday evening. At that time at least a tentative program will be outlined.

A special effort will be made by the committee on the home coming to make that day—which has not yet been set—a big feature of the week. Some suggestions offered the committee are that some former resident who has gained prominence abroad be brought back here for an address and that some of the older people of the county as well as pioneers of Rush county who have moved away be asked to sit on the stage and be introduced to the audience.

Because many curios have been heard of in Rush county which are too large to display in show windows, plans were laid last night to provide some suitable place for their exhibition. At present all members of the old reliables committee are women, but some men will be appointed to the committee and will co-operate with the women in arranging for a display of the larger pieces.

Jack Stonecipher was appointed a member of the arch committee last night.

COLORED SPEAKER COMING

Harry L. Scott of Indianapolis to be here Tuesday night

Harry L. Scott, a colored political speaker of Indianapolis will deliver an address at the Republican headquarters here next Tuesday night at eight o'clock. The meeting is of especial interest to the colored voters of the county and a large crowd is expected to attend. A colored glee club will furnish music. Mr. Shelton is said to be a good talker. The meeting is open to the public.

Mr. Scott is said to be a good man.

Mr. Scott recently moved to Indianapolis from New York. He is a highly educated colored man and has prepared several pamphlets upon questions and treatment of the colored race by the Democratic party, especially the present administration.

HORSE SHOW OPENS.

Martinsville, Ind., Sept. 15.—Citizens of Monrovia, a small town near here today started a two day agricultural exhibit, which will be featured by a large horse show. The race track has been renovated for the speed contests.

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

WILSON REGIME HIGHLY PRAISED

Some Attention is Also Paid to Recent Tour of Hughes at Marshall Notification

MANY NOTABLES PRESENT

Marks Formal Opening of Democratic Campaign in Indiana—National Chairman There

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—The Wilson administration was glorified and the efforts of Charles E. Hughes to discredit it were scored severely last night in speeches at the notification of Vice President Marshall, which was held in Toulminson Hall before a large audience. The notification was the formal opening of the Democratic national campaign in Indiana, and in addition to the Vice President, Vance McCormick, national chairman; Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, Western campaign manager, and other leading lights of the Democratic party were in attendance.

The meeting was preceded by a monster parade of Democratic organizations from a score of cities, towns and villages of Indiana, who came to the rally. The national party leaders occupied seats on the stage, and in addition to those mentioned above, the visitors included Representative Edward Taylor of Colorado, Scott Ferris, representative from Oklahoma; Bruce Kremer, director of the speakers' bureau at Chicago; National Committeeman Boeschenstein of Illinois, and William J. Cochran, publicity director at the Chicago office.

About twenty-five members of the notification committee attended, including Mrs. Terese Graham of Cœur d'Alene, Idaho, and Mrs. Harrison Foster of Tacoma, Wash., the only two women members of the committee.

Martin H. Glynn of New York, chairman of the notification committee, delivered the notification address and severely scored Charles E. Hughes for his attempt to discredit the Wilson administration. He referred particularly to the issue drawn by Hughes on the Adamson eight-hour law.

In an interview given out on his arrival here at noon, Chairman McCormick declared that the Democrats are going to insist that Mr. Hughes answer the questions propounded to him by the American writers. Everywhere Hughes goes, he said, the questions will be printed in paid advertisements in the newspapers. This program will be followed out when Hughes comes to Indiana next week, he said.

In his notification speech Mr. Glynn asked some pointed questions of the Republican nominee concerning the Adamson act. In this connection he said:

"In his hopping for an issue, the Republican candidate for President seems to have settled for awhile on this eight-hour railway law, but he will not stay on it very long after the voters commence to ask him to explain his contradictory conduct of himself and his party on this question. If this bill is a bad bill, why did seventy-five Republican congressmen vote for it, and only forty-five against it? If this bill is a bad bill, why didn't the Republican members of the Senate kill it, as they could have killed it by exercising their parliamentary rights under the no-cloture rule of the Senate?"

"They could have talked it to death under that rule, as they have talked many another good law to death. If the Republican candidate for President thinks this is such a bad law, why didn't he say so before two-thirds of his party declared in favor of it in the House of Representatives?"

Glynn declared that the failure of the Republicans to kill the bill should stop their criticism of it.

GOOD EFFECT IS FELT IN STATE

Maine Election Results Cheer Republican Workers and Arouse New Activity.

OPPOSITE ON DEMOCRATS

Evidence of This is Change to Offers of 10 to 8 Wilson Will Not Carry State.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 15.—The Wilson administration was glorified and the efforts of Charles E. Hughes to discredit it were scored severely last night in speeches at the notification of Vice President Marshall, which was held in Toulminson Hall before a large audience. The notification was the formal opening of the Democratic national campaign in Indiana, and in addition to the Vice President, Vance McCormick, national chairman; Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, Western campaign manager, and other leading lights of the Democratic party were in attendance.

On the other hand, the effect of the Maine election on the Democratic politicians has been much the same as the effect throwing a wet blanket on a blaze would have. Their faces lengthened as the returns from the Pine Tree state rolled in and when the final returns, showing a clean sweep of all the Maine congressional districts by the Republicans, were received, they made no attempt whatever to conceal their disappointment. Discouraged beyond expression, they will go about their Indiana work with a full realization that the political drift is decidedly in the direction of Republicanism. The additional handicap of a candidate for governor, humiliated to the point of admitting publicly that he cannot answer the attacks being made by his Republican opponent, has in no way tended to increase confidence or arouse party enthusiasm.

About twenty-five members of the notification committee attended, including Mrs. Terese Graham of Cœur d'Alene, Idaho, and Mrs. Harrison Foster of Tacoma, Wash., the only two women members of the committee.

Gas Engines of Quality

At the present time the market is flooded with a lot of undersized and cheaply constructed engines, with a much over-rated horse power. Do not be misled by a low price and extravagant claims.

When you buy a FOOS you are getting full value for every dollar you put into it. It develops full power on a lower speed, thereby greatly adding to the life of your engine. Patent speed changer is operated instantly. There are dozens of satisfied users in the county. Investigate the FOOS first. It will pay you well. Furnished with magneto if desired.

JUST PAINT

That's often all that's needed to rent tenantless property or to get a purchaser for a house you want to sell. Ask us what it will cost. DON'T FORGET THAT ROOF—it may need painting to protect it from the storms of the coming winter and save it from rust. Better let us examine it. We'll tell you honestly whether it needs painting and quote the lowest price consistent with good value, if it does.

WELSH SHOWED DASH IN FIGHT

Fought Like Demons in Big Offensive Against the Germans—Many Stories Told.

IS OF INTEREST TO AMERICANS

Way They Did Their Work Will Never be Forgotten, According to Reports.

BY WILBUR H. FORREST.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Aug. 21.—(By Mail)—It may interest the thousands of Welshmen in America to know that in the big British offensive in Northern France, which has made more local history in the British Isles than any other part of the war, their blood brothers fought like demons and to good purpose at many points.

Almost every county in England, Scotland and Wales now has its individual story of "how our boys fought the Germans." Many new battalions received their baptism of fire in the big push. Many counties were in it for the first time and now almost every crossroads village, town or city can boast that it has taken a hand in the fighting.

"The way our boys did their work will never be forgotten in the history of the Welsh people," wrote a Welsh soldier to his parents in Cardiff. Reports from the front generally say the Welshmen fought with a dash unequalled in Welsh history. The Welsh soldier's story is told in Cardiff just like other Welsh soldiers' stories are told in other parts of Wales.

These stories are local history and they are squelching more labor unrest at home than two years' talk by cabinet ministers and parliament could ever do. The recalcitrant Welsh miners who decided to take a vacation in spite of Lloyd George's request for all work and no play, altered their decision when the stories of the Big Push began to come home. The troublesome labor elements on the Tyneside, in England, who promised periodical stubbornness, finally informed the government that they were really loyal.

The Clyde workers in Scotland, upon whom the navy depends for much of its strength, have redoubled their efforts and decided to work, holidayless, to beat the Germans.

The war, by virtue of the Picardy offensive, is creeping into almost every British home. There are empty chairs and pensions in many of them. There are German helmets and other relics in some. Wounded Tommies home to recover also are there. But in all there are the stories that will be told for generations: how Tom, Dick or Harry fought in the big offensive.
